

Dear Family and Friends,

With weddings, come gifts. But over the years, we've become increasingly mindful of the things we bring into our lives, and the impact they have.

So, we just wanted to let you know that having you in our lives is the biggest gift. Your love and blessings mean the world to us!

However, if you want to gift us something, we'd like to share a bit about our dreams and goals that could actualize sooner with your support.

We've categorized our dreams into home, travel and projects.

BUILDING OUR HOME

The things we own own us. We are consciously only buying what will truly add value to our lives.

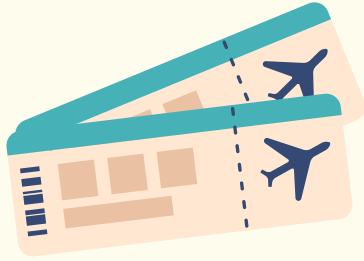

We are looking to purchase:

Juicer, Slow cooker, Kitchen stove, Bed frame, Mattress, Sofa bed, Air conditioner, and other home essentials.

Any amount of cash/vouchers would help us purchase these.

OUR TRAVEL DREAMS

Right after the wedding, we're looking forward to swimming with whales in Sri Lanka!

We're dreaming of exploring the crystal-clear waters, diving, and experiencing wildlife in the deep blue.

If you'd like to support our adventure, just text us.

OUR CREATIVE PROJECTS

We are building Karunachal Foundation, a project close to our hearts, where we work with kids to forge a more eco-conscious community.

It's more than just a project... it's about planting a seed of eco-consciousness in young minds.

Thank you for your love and support. We look forward to celebrating with you soon!

With Love,
Navi & Ally

PS. If you happen to get us flower bouquets, kindly ensure there is no packaging. Single stemmed flowers are beautiful as they are!
